

Short course in...

Phonology & Teaching Pronunciation

This course provides an introduction to all the essentials you need to know in order to start teaching pronunciation. The course consists of four ninety-minute sessions.

- Session one covers all the basics relating to consonants, including voicing, the place and manner of articulation, and the phonemic symbols.
- Session two covers the vowels and diphthongs, and includes suggestions for games and activities for learners to work on these.
- Session three covers issues relating to connected speech, including stress, intonation, elision, assimilation and linking.
- Session four covers a wide variety of creative techniques for teaching pronunciation at different levels.

Aims and objectives

This course aims to provide a sound foundation in the basics of phonology, and an awareness of the issues involved in teaching pronunciation.

On completion of the course, participants should have a good basic awareness of the sounds of English, and the ability to use a variety of appropriate techniques for teaching pronunciation.

Entry requirements & Assessment

This course is open to all and assumes no prior knowledge of the subject. There is no assessment. Certificates of participation are awarded to all participants.

Short Courses Series

Each course in the series is self-contained. There are inter-related themes, but no overlap in the content, so you can choose to attend any or all of them.

Registration

For details of dates and venues, see www.anglo-hellenic.com/training/short-courses.htm.

To register for a place, email courses@anglo-hellenic.com or telephone 27410 53511.